

14T10

Launcher Crewmember

Crew members are responsible for configuring their equipment for missile launch and verify systems operational readiness. Crew members are also required to perform March Order and Emplacement, PMCS, fault recognition, missile reload using both the GMT, 10K forklift (if available) and operate radio and wire communications.